

PETALUMA FIRE DEPARTMENT

"Proudly Serving Since 1857"

Training Opportunity

"Leadership lessons of 12 O'clock High"

The Petaluma Fire Department will be conducting a 4 hour leadership through cinema presentation:

March 11th at the Petaluma Community Center.

Starting promptly at 08:30 until approximately Noon

Twelve O'clock High is an Academy Award winning film that we will use as a model to discuss leadership styles and principles. This lesson deals with identifying leadership styles and discussing specific Fire Leadership Values and Principles. This lesson plan has been adapted from "Twelve O'clock High" – A Study of Situational Leadership, with permission from The Citadel Air Force ROTC.

Attendance is voluntary and offered to all personnel at no cost.

Duty crews are welcomed.

So...if studies of leadership models and self development are your interests...or...

YOU JUST LIKE OLD WWII MOVIES.

This might be worth your time.

To register, please contact:

Dan Epperson

Petaluma Fire Department

198 D St.

Petaluma, CA. 94952

Phone: (707) 778-4492

FAX: (707) 762-4547

E-mail: depperson@ci.petaluma.ca.us

